Not long ago a Brockton, Me., man received his monthly pay envelope containing $125. This should have gone to lift a mortgage on his home, but it didn't, for instead of going home to his spouse, the man went to Boston and lost it all in a faro game. Then he got beastly drunk and went home. When he sobered up enough to tell his wife what had happened she started at once for Boston. Getting her bearings, she struck out for the faro den, and finally secured admittance to the innermost den of the tiger. Once here she made things so hot for the proprietors that three days later they gladly settled with her for $300. The man wil! play no more taro, the mortgage is litted, and it has been demonstrated that the tiger is no match for the lady .-- Morning News.
